Facilities

Recreation & Athletic Center

Completed in the Summer of 2006, the Recreation and Athletic Center includes three basketball courts that can be used for volleyball and tennis, a two-lane track, high ropes course, climbing wall, locker facilities, and a training room.

Fitness Center

The 3500 square foot fitness center located in the Marts Center contains 16 cardiovascular pieces, including stairmasters, treadmills, bikes and elipticles. The fitness center also offers an extensive line of free weights and machines from Hammer Strength.

Artillery Park

The field hockey field at Artillery Park was renovated in 2002 when it was leveled and sodded. During the renovation process a new watering system was also installed.

2007 Preview

Head coach Sara Myers has 19 players returning from last season's team that fashioned an overall record of 9-9. Included among the returnees are the squad's top eight scorers from a season ago.

Junior Devon McKay and senior Lauren Risser lead the group of players at forward. McKay led the team in points last season with eight goals and five assists, while Risser was the team's top goal scorer after netting nine goals and handing out one helper. Junior Alyssa Koncelik ranked third on the team with five goals and two assists and sophomore Jennifer Keegan was fourth with three goals and four assists.

Senior Lindsay Thomas, who had three goals and one assist, junior Alex Ingram, who contributed two goals and two helpers, and sophomore Stacy Malia, who had one assist, are also back at the forward position. Freshmen who will vie for time include Nicole Persing, Angela Passamonte, Kelsey Fetsko and Alyson Paulauskas.

The Lady Colonels will return four veterans in the midfield. Junior Diana Wright ranked fifth on the team in scoring with four goals and one assist in 2006. Sophomores Amanda Tilley, who had two goals and four assists, Kendall Billig and Brittany Sines round out the group of veterans. Freshman Rachel Cannuli will also push for playing time in the midfield.

Five experienced players return on defense, including second team All-Freedom Conference honoree junior Kristina Naveira. She is joined on defense by junior Kerry Battersby, and sophomores Kim Baldino, Erica Sundberg and Aundrea Robertson. Freshman who could figure into the mix defensively are Aubrey Madara and Cassandra Palmer.

Sophomores Julia Smith and Serena Eber will battle it out for the starting position in goal. Smith played in nine contests, including eight as a starter last season. She came up with 42 saves and had a 2.00 goals against average. Eber saw action in five games and had six saves and a 2.05 goals against average.

WILKES FIELD HOCKEY

Coaching Staff

Sara Myers, Head Coach

Sara Myers begins her third season as the head field hockey coach at Wilkes University. Myers guided the Lady Colonels to an overall record of 9-10 and a berth in the Freedom Conference playoffs during her first season, while leading the squad to a 9-9 mark a season ago. Myers arrived at Wilkes after spending the 2005 season as the head coach at the University of Scranton.

Myers earned her bachelor's degree in Public Relations from Susquehanna University, where she was also a four-year starter on the field hockey team. A team captain during her senior season, she earned the team's Most Valuable Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards following both her junior and senior campaigns. An All-Commonwealth Conference selection as a senior, Myers was also a member of the Middle Atlantic Conference Academic Honor Roll.

After graduating from Susquehanna Myers went on to Goucher College where she spent two seasons as an assistant field hockey coach. Myers also garnered her master's degree in Athletic Administration and Leadership from the Maryland-based school in 2003.

Lisa Wasser, Assistant Coach

Wasser begins her first season as a member of the Wilkes coach staff. A 2007 graduate of the University of Louisville with a degree in Education, Wasser was a four-year standout performer on the field hockey field for the Cardinals.

Wasser was named to the All-Big East second team in both 2005 and 2006 and was a member of the All-MAC first team in 2004. A four-time member of the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Academic Squad, Wasser was a first team All-West Region selection as a senior after earning second team honors during her sophomore campaign. She was Louisville's team MVP in both 2004 and 2006, and was chosen to the 2006 NFHCA Senior All-Star Game.

Lunda Dickson, Assistant Coach

Dickson is in her first season as a member of the Wilkes field hockey coaching staff. She is a graduate of College Misericordia where she earned her degree in Sport Management.

Dickson was a four-year member of the Cougars field hockey team. A captain during her senior season, she ranks fifth on the school's all-time points list, fifth on the all-time goal scoring list, and third on the all-time assists list. Dickson was a second team All-PAC honoree as a senior in 2005, and earned honorable mention All-PAC honors in both 2003 and 2004.
