Faculty Updates

Compiled by Justin Jones

- Dr. Michelle Anthony's essay, “Innumerable Judgments: P.D. Manvill's Lucinda; Or The Mountain Mourner,” will appear in Literature in the Early American Republic later this year.
- Dr. Kathleen Kemmerer formed a faculty group called Works in Progress. Kemmerer, along with Drs. Michelle Anthony, Marcia Farrell, Maria Hebert-Leiter, Chad Stanley, and Janet Starnier meets several times each semester to workshop pieces for publication. The professors utilize the peer review process of their classroom pedagogies while enjoying 18th-century style tea and biscuits.

The Heaman Scholarship

The Patricia Boyle Heaman and Robert J. Heaman Scholarship is awarded annually to an individual who will be a junior or senior English Literature major as of Fall 2008. The recipient of this supplementary award is selected by a committee of English faculty members based on demonstrated excellence in English studies, potential for advanced study in English, scholarship, and financial need. Preference will be given to students from the Wyoming Valley. Applications should be sent to Dr. Larry Kuhar, Humanities Division Chairperson, by May 2, 2008.

Club and Student Updates

Compiled by Justin Jones

- The Manuscript Society will unveil the Spring 2008 edition of The Manuscript, on Tuesday, April 29, 2008, from 11:00am to 12:30pm, in the Sordoni Art Gallery. Light refreshments will be served. All are invited to attend.
- Wilkes in the World hosted Humanitarian Weekend from April 11 to 13, 2008. The weekend included a Create-a-Thon, film festival, open forum, craft sale, poetry reading, and memorial service for the victims of genocidal violence. All proceeds will be donated to Save Darfur, Heifer International, American Care for Sudan, and Keep a Child Alive, which are organizations working to stop violence, hunger, and the spread of disease.
- The band, The SilenTreatment, with senior English major Sam Chiarelli, Wilkes student Michael Sharkey, Anthony Giamusso, Stephen Martin, and Mark Lieback, will be releasing their debut album entitled Sinful Acts of Audio, on June 17, 2008. The album will be available in stores, from the band, and from all online retailers, including iTunes. The SilenTreatment will be playing a CD release party at Tink's in Scranton on the same day the album debuts. For more information, go to www.myspace.com/thesilentreatment or www.thesilentreatment.net.

The Thelma K. and Samuel Bosch Scholarship

The Thelma K. and Samuel Bosch Scholarship Award Fund of the Luzerne Foundation will present its second annual scholarship this spring to a graduating senior from Wilkes University. Applicants must have a major in English through the Division of Humanities and/or a major in Political Science through the Division of Social Sciences. First priority in the selection process is academic merit, with financial need being a second priority. Applicants must submit 250 - 500 word essays on why they should receive this award. The essay should include information about the applicant's future goals and aspirations after graduation.

See Pamela Hoffman in Financial Aid for additional information regarding this scholarship.
