

Master of Science in Education: The Art & Science of Teaching

To earn your master’s degree in The Art & Science of Teaching, you must successfully complete the courses listed below. As you progress through the program, please keep an account of the courses taken on this checklist.

Course	Credits	Semester/Year Completed
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5040: Foundations of the Art & Science of Teaching (must be taken first)	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5041: Establishing Learning Goals to Support Learning & Instructional Design	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5042: Monitoring & Measuring Student Progress	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5043: Actively Processing New Content	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5044: Extending Student Learning	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5045: Designing Instruction for Student Engagement	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5046: Creating an Effective Classroom Environment	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5047: Developing Relationships and High Expectations for Student Learning	3	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> EDAM 5048: Applying the Art & Science of Teaching (must be taken last)	6	_____
<input type="checkbox"/> GRD 000B: Graduation (Fee.Required) Remember, you must register for GRD 000B by the advertised deadline to graduate in the upcoming semester. Fee subject to change without notice.	NA	_____

For any questions regarding this program, please contact the National Institute for Professional Practice at (888)235-6555.