

2009 OUTSTANDING LEADERS FORUM

Presents Nobel Laureate and activist

Professor Elie Wiesel

November 17, 2009, at 8 p.m. — F.M. Kirby Center for the Performing Arts

Proceeds support the development of tomorrow's business leaders

Nobel Peace Prize winner and Boston University Professor Elie Wiesel has worked on behalf of oppressed people for much of his adult life. His personal experience of the Holocaust has led him to use his talents as an author, teacher and storyteller to defend human rights and peace throughout the world.

Outstanding Leaders Forum — Become a Sponsor

They start businesses that create jobs. They help our region grow by strengthening organizations that contribute to our quality of life. They are tomorrow's leaders, today's Wilkes University students. By sponsoring the region's premier speaking engagement, you and your organization will increase access to the exceptional leadership training offered by Wilkes University's Sidhu School of Business and Leadership.

The Outstanding Leaders Scholarship Fund provides support to business, accounting, and entrepreneurship students who demonstrate leadership potential. Through one of the most innovative business programs in the Northeast, Sidhu School graduates receive an exceptional core business education reinforced by leadership development that emphasizes the importance of emotional intelligence.

Wilkes hopes to generate $100,000 annually to support the dreams and future leadership contributions of 100 gifted students from our region. Sponsorships will help transform the talented young women and men of our region into tomorrow's leaders.
