CAR. CAREERS

CAR-101. LIFE/CAREER PLANNING
Credits: 1
A study of the components of career decision-making, including the influence of personal goals, values, interests, and perceived skills. The practical application of theory results in a portfolio of information essential to deliberate and effective decision-making.