* Freedom Conference Match
* Homecoming

2007 Preview

Wilkes head coach Phil Wingert will welcome back 13 lettermen, including three All-Freedom Conference performers, from last season’s squad. The Colonels fashioned an overall record of 12-6-1 a season ago and earned a berth in the Freedom Conference playoffs.

Sophomore Bret Oswald, who was a second team All-Freedom selection as a freshman, leads the group of forwards. Oswald had three goals, all game-winners, and four assists as a freshman. Sophomore Greg Miller, who had four assists as a freshman, also returns up front. Freshmen Ryan Phillips and John Helwig will also vie for time at the forward position.

Senior Andy Curry heads the midfielders after garnering first team All-Conference honors last fall. Curry was the leading scorer for Wilkes with nine goals and two assists in 2006 and also led the team with four game-winning goals. Four other veterans, senior Kyle Dukmen and sophomores Jonathan Kushner, Sean Vona and Kassidy Andrus, will be relied on to add experience in the midfield. Newcomers who will competete for playing time include freshmen Jeffrey Simpson, Doug Moore, Matt Sankey, Sean Stitt and James Humenansky, and sophomore Jeff Monschein.

First team All-Conference performer Jimmy Thomas will anchor the Colonels defensively. Sophomores Keith Gardiner, Arthur Jankowski, Paul Seok and Troy Gibson all saw ample playing time a season ago, while junior Shawn McEnteer and freshman Tom Joyce begin their first season with the squad.

Senior TJ Baloga will get the start in goal for Wilkes. Baloga appeared in five matches a season ago, including one as a starter, and fashioned a 0.46 goals against average with nine saves.
Coaching Staff

Starting his 26th year as head coach of the Colonels men’s soccer program is Phil Wingert. With a career mark of 237-217-16, Wingert is the third longest tenured coach in Wilkos soccer history. Thirteen times his teams have registered double figure victories with the 1991 team setting a school record with 16 victories.

Wingert has guided the Colonels to the postseason in 11 of the last 17 years, winning the ECAC Southern Division championship in 1990, the MAC Northeast Division title in 1992 and a share of the conference title in 1997. In 2004 he earned Freedom Conference Coach of the Year honors after leading Wilkes to a conference playoff berth.

A graduate of SUNY Cortland with a degree in Physical Education and a Master’s Degree in Athletic Administration from Virginia Tech, Wingert was an assistant coach at Virginia Tech before taking over the Wilkes men’s program.

Along with coaching soccer, Wingert is the Associate Athletic Director at Wilkes, a position he assumed in July of 1998. Prior to that he spent six years as the Athletic Director at Wilkes.

Wingert, his wife Antoinette, daughter Laura Marie, and son Robert reside in Wilkes-Barre.
