HEAD COACH JON LAUDENSLAGER

Jon Laudenslager begins his fifth season as the head wrestling coach at Wilkes University. Laudenslager has led Wilkes to a dual match record of 43-33 during his first four seasons. Prior to taking over the head coaching chores he was an assistant coach for the Colonels for three seasons.

A year ago Laudenslager guided the Colonels to a 10-9 record and a fifth-place finish at the Metropolitan Conference Championships. He also had one wrestler, 125-pound star Felipe Queiroz, earn a berth in the NCAA Division III Championships. During the 2005-06 season he helped the Colonels post a 13-5 dual match record and earned a third-place finish at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships. A pair of his wrestlers, Queiroz and Brandon Kelly, advanced to the NCAA Division III Championships, where both wrestlers earned All-America honors. Queiroz, who was the MAC champ at 125 pounds, finished sixth at the NCAA Championships, while Kelly, who earned a wild card berth after finishing as the MAC runner-up at 197 pounds, placed third at the NCAA Championships. Queiroz and Kelly led Wilkes to a 12th-place finish in the NCAA event.

Laudenslager is a former standout wrestler for the Colonels, earning four varsity letters from 1994 to 1998 while wrestling at the Division I level. He broke onto the scene as a rookie when he fashioned an overall record of 24-7 while wrestling at both 126 and 134 pounds. Laudenslager finished fifth at the EIWA Championships and earned EIWA Rookie of the Year honors. His performance helped Wilkes fashion a dual match record of 14-10-1 and cop a tenth place finish at the EIWA Championships. He also ended his freshman season with a team-leading nine wins by fall.

As a junior Laudenslager concluded the season with an overall record of 17-10 at 134 pounds. He posted six wins by fall and came close to knocking off EIWA champion Carl Keske from Cornell University, dropping a hard-fought 11-9 decision. He also earned a second-place finish at the West Point Open, while claiming the team's Shawn Galbreath Academic Coaches Award.

Laudenslager wrestled primarily at 158 pounds during his senior season and fashioned an overall record of 11-5. For his efforts he was named the winner of the Timmy Adams Most Courageous Performer Award.

Laudenslager was a standout on the mats during his high school days at Pocono Mountain. During his career, he posted an overall record of 117-15-1.

A graduate of Wilkes with a degree in Psychology, Laudenslager is only the seventh head coach in the 58-year history of the Colonels wrestling program.

ASSISTANT COACH RORY TOBIAS

Rory Tobias begins his second season as an assistant coach with the Wilkes wrestling team. Tobias is a 2005 graduate of SUNY Oneonta with a bachelor's degree in Anthropology.

Tobias enjoyed an outstanding two-year career on the mats while at Oneonta. Wrestling at 149 pounds, he posted a career record of 60 wins and 18 losses. Tobias also won 20 of his matches by fall. During both the 2004 and 2005 campaigns he earned berths in the NCAA Division III Championships. In 2005 Tobias also claimed the Empire Conference championship at 149 pounds. That same season he wrestled under the guidance of Oneonta head coach Duane Ritter, who was a former mat standout at Wilkes.

An outstanding student as well, Tobias was selected to the Academic All-American team in both 2004 and 2005. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in Business Administration at Wilkes.

ASSISTANT COACH MITCH MARCKS

Mitch Marcks returns for his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Colonels. Marcks is a 2004 graduate of King's College, where he earned a degree in Elementary Education. He also earned a master's degree in education from Wilkes in 2006.

Marcks was a four-year starter at 125 pounds for King's. During that time he amassed a school-record 144 wins, while suffering only 18 losses. Marcks also claimed two Middle Atlantic Conference championships in his weight class. A four-time NCAA Division III qualifier, Marcks had his best run in the NCAA Championships in 2003 when he finished as the runner-up. He was a three-time All-American, while also earning Pennsylvania Division III Wrestler of the Year honors twice.

Prior to arriving at King's, Marcks had an outstanding scholastic career at Dieruff High School in Allentown, where he was a Pennsylvania State qualifier.

ASSISTANT COACH ALEX WILSON

Wilson is back for his second season as a member of the Wilkes coaching staff. He is a 1991 graduate of Moravian College with a bachelor's degree in History.

While at Moravian Wilson was a four-year starter for the Greyhounds wrestling team and posted an overall record of 81-23 for the nationally-ranked squad. A co-captain on the 1987-88 team, Wilson finished third at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships in both 1987 and 1989.

Wilson began his coaching career by guiding the Pee Wee and Bantam teams for the Greater Norristown Wrestling Club from 1998 through 2000. He then moved on to Lake-Lehman High School, where he served as a volunteer assistant coach during the 2001-02 season. From 2002-06 Wilson further honed his coaching skills as the junior high coach at Lake-Lehman. During his stint he led the Black Knights to a record of 62-22 and the 2005 Wyoming Valley Conference championship. His teams also claimed District 2 West Sectional titles in 2003, 2005 and 2006.

ASSISTANT COACHES

2007-08 Wilkes University Wrestling

The Wilkes University wrestling team will welcome back 20 letter winners this season. The Colonels are coming off a season in which they fashioned a 10-9 record and finished fifth at the Metro Wrestling Conference Championships.

Leading the group of returnees is 125-pound standout Felipe Queiroz. Queiroz, a junior, is a two-time NCAA Division III qualifier and earned All-American honors as a freshman. Queiroz fashioned a 19-7 record last season and is ranked sixth his weight class in the Division III pre-season poll.

Junior Justin Barowski has also received plenty of pre-season attention. Barowski, who will move from 165 pounds to 157 pounds this season, is ranked ninth in the pre-season Division III poll at 157. Last season he went 21-8 overall and finished third at the conference tournament.

Wilkes has plenty of experience to go along with Queiroz and Barowski. Junior Josh Pauling returns at 133 pounds after posting a 20-17 mark last year. Junior Peter George is back at 141 pounds and had a 15-12 record as a sophomore. Erik Smith was the starter at 149 last season and returns for his junior year following a 22-12 campaign. Sophomore Frank Heffernan will move from 157 to 165 after posting a 22-13 record as a rookie.

Sophomore Josh Ballan, who had an 11-8 record last season while mainly wrestling at 184 pounds, will move to 174 pounds this season, while sophomore Colin Nagy returns at 184 as well after going 11-12 as a freshman.

Here is a breakdown of the Colonels by weight class:

125 Lbs.: Queiroz is a two-year starter in this weight class. Fellow junior Shaun Farnham has also gained plenty of mat time during his career. Last season Farnham had a 20-10 record and finished third at the Oneonta State Tournament.

133 Lbs.: Pauling is back for his third season on the mats for the Colonels. A pair of freshmen, Brandon Prentice and Ryan Wilson, will look to push for some time and add depth in this weight class.

141 Lbs.: George is likely to be the starter at this weight class this season. Sophomore Robert Griffith will be looking to earn some time of his own for the Colonels this year.

149 Lbs.: Probably the deepest weight class. Smith is the incumbent, although senior Adam Penberthy has moved up after wrestling at 141 last season. Penberthy was 15-8 as a junior and earned a berth in the Metro final. Sophomore Derek Brownmiller had an 11-10 mark as a freshman and finished second at the King's Tournament, and freshman Frank O'Shea are also in the mix.

157 Lbs.: Barowski's move from 165 to 157 should help strengthen the middle of the Colonels lineup. Senior Andrew Franko adds experience after posting a 7-9 record last year. Rookies James Histed and Adam Levine also figure to push for mat time.

165 Lbs.: Heffernan is one of three wrestlers who will look for the starting berth at 165 pounds. Sophomore Rich Clocker went 6-6 during his freshman season in the weight class, while junior Joe Henshaw had a 5-6 record at 157 pounds.

174 Lbs.: Ballan, who had his rookie season cut short due to an injury, leads the lists of candidates for the starting job at 174. Also expected to contend are sophomore Josh Lamb, who was 0-4 last year, sophomore Rich Pellegrini, who had a 1-2 record as a freshman, and rookie Travis Davis.

184 Lbs.: Nagy is the leading candidate to get the start in this weight class after enjoying a solid freshman campaign. Sophomore Devin Sassone-McHugh is also back after going 3-4 as a rookie. Freshman Chris Smith is also expected to vie for time.

197 Lbs.: Senior Joe Scala, who sat out last season, and a pair of newcomers, Zach Pizarro, who is also a member of the football team, and James Gonzalez, will battle it out for the starting berth at 197 pounds.

285 Lbs.: Five grapplers will vie for the starting position at 285. The group includes senior Rich Read, who was 0-6 last season, and sophomore Andrew Feldman, who had a 4-4 mark. Others who will figure into the mix are freshmen Tyrone Curry, Levi Stern and Jake Weinrich.

2007-08 Wilkes University Wrestling

The three-story, 75,000-square-foot Marts Center is regarded as one of the finest athletic facilities in the Middle Atlantic Conference. The building includes the 3,500-seat Henry Gymnasium, which serves as the home for the men's and women's basketball teams, the wrestling team and the volleyball team.

The Fitness Center, located on the bottom floor of the Marts Center, is approximately 3,000 square feet and includes cardio equipment, weight equipment, Hammer Strength Free Weight machines, Hammer Ground Based equipment and Hammer Strength Free Weight benches.

The Marts Center also features the Colonels wrestling room, which serves as the training facility for the Wilkes grapplers. The wrestling room includes two full-sized competition mats for the Colonels to practice on.
