

AFRICANA STUDIES FILM SERIES: JUDAS AND THE BLACK MESSIAH

Join us for pizza, popcorn, and a special screening of Judas and the Black Messiah – the powerful story of Fred Hampton, leader of the Illinois chapter of the Black Panther Party, and the betrayal that led to his assassination. This 2021 film – starring Daniel Kaluuya and LaKeith Stanfield – brings to life Hampton’s fight for justice, unity, and equality, and the official efforts to silence him. It’s a story of courage, conviction, and the price of resistance. The event will open with a brief introduction to Hampton’s life and work, highlighting his leadership, vision, and lasting impact on movements for social justice.

This event is free and open to the Wilkes community.

TUESDAY, FEB. 3

6–9 PM

JPAC, HENRY STUDENT CENTER
SECOND FLOOR

Wilkes University