SPRING AWAKENING
Book & Lyrics by Steven Sater · Music by Duncan Sheik
Based on the play by Frank Wedekind

Germany, 1891. A group of teenagers is desperate for answers the adults around them refuse to give. This electrifying rock musical about growing up, rebellion, and first love won eight Tony Awards, including Best Musical.

Did you know? Skylar Astin, who sang in an early reading of See Rock City, originated the role of Georg in Spring Awakening on Broadway.

Contains mature themes and language.

Fun Facts About Tonight's Destinations

ROCK CITY · Lookout Mountain, Georgia

- Garnet and Frieda Carter opened Rock City in 1932. Frieda laid out the trail with a ball of string and added German gnome statues.
- From 1935, painter Clark Byers put "SEE ROCK CITY" on more than 900 barn roofs in 19 states.
- Rock City claims you can see seven states from Lover's Leap, as soldiers on both sides wrote during the Civil War.

ROSWELL · 33.39 N, 104.53 W, New Mexico

- In 1947 the Army announced it had recovered a "flying disc" near Roswell, then retracted the story within a day.
- The debris was really a top-secret Project Mogul balloon, built to detect Soviet nuclear tests.
- Today Roswell hosts an annual UFO Festival and the International UFO Museum.

THE ALAMO · San Antonio, Texas

- Founded in 1718 as a Spanish mission. "Álamo" means cottonwood tree.
- It fell on March 6, 1836, after a 13-day siege. Jim Bowie and Davy Crockett died there.
- The church's famous curved top wasn't there during the battle. The U.S. Army added it in 1849.

GLACIER BAY · Southeast Alaska

- In 1794 the bay was a wall of ice. The glaciers have since retreated about 65 miles.
- No roads lead to the park, so most visitors arrive by cruise ship, and only two cruise ships are allowed in each day.
- The 5,000-square-mile park is the ancestral homeland of the Tlingit people.

CONEY ISLAND · Brooklyn, New York

- From about 1880 to World War II it was America's largest amusement area, with three rival parks: Luna Park, Dreamland, and Steeplechase.
- Nathan Handwerker sold nickel hot dogs there in 1916, the start of Nathan's Famous. The Wonder Wheel (1920) and the Cyclone coaster still run today.
- The Q train runs 24 hours a day to its last stop, Stillwell Avenue in Coney Island.

NIAGARA FALLS · New York & Ontario

- There are three falls: Horseshoe, American, and Bridal Veil. At peak times about 5.9 million cubic feet of water go over every minute.
- On her 63rd birthday in 1901, Annie Edson Taylor became the first person to go over the falls in a barrel and survive. Her advice afterward: "No one ought ever do that again."
