

READING MINOR

Reading Minor

The 18-credit reading minor is incorporated into the Elementary & Early Childhood Education (PreK-4) program. The minor provides students with a strong literacy foundation. The Reading Minor is comprised of six, three-credit courses. The current sequence of courses offered by the Undergraduate Education Department related to reading pedagogy and literacy are included in the requirements for the 18-credit minor. These courses are:

[[ED-321]] - Literacy Foundations I with Professional Development School Field Hours

[[ED-322]] - Literacy Foundations II with Professional Development School Field Hours

[[ED-323]] - Differentiated Reading Methods

[[ED-324]] - Children's Literature

[[ED-325]] - Applied Reading Strategies with Field Hours

[[ED-341]] - Language Arts in Elementary & Early Childhood Education
