Sociology

Total minimum number of credits required for a major in Sociology leading to the B.A. degree - 120

Total minimum number of credits required for a minor in Sociology - 18

A unique feature of the program in Sociology is its flexibility. Students have the opportunity to pursue a full range of academic options beyond the major. For example, utilizing existing programs and courses, it is possible for students to achieve a dual major in Sociology and Psychology, Sociology and Criminology, or to finish an M.B.A. in slightly more than one calendar year after completion of their B.A. degree.

Sociology Major

A major in Sociology prepares students for a variety of careers. Students who graduate with a major in Sociology find jobs in social services, criminal justice, business, and education. Students who decide to pursue a graduate education can do so in a variety of fields including sociology, law, social work, business, and psychology, among others.

A major in Sociology consists of 38 hours, including [[SOC-101]], either [[ANT-101]] or [[ANT-102]], [[SOC-352]], [[SOC-370]], [[SOC-371]], [[SOC-381]], [[SOC-309]] (2 credits), [[SOC-390]], and 15 credits of electives. All anthropology courses may be taken for credit toward the major or minor in Sociology. Courses required in the major, such as [[SOC-101]] and [[ANT-101]], may also be used to fulfill distribution requirements in the General Education Curriculum.

The department emphasizes internships in professional settings, which integrate academic studies with work experiences such as [[SOC-393]] (Practicum) and [[SOC-399]] (Cooperative Education). The credit hours earned in [[SOC-393]] and [[SOC-399]] may not, however, be applied toward the 41 hours of course work required for the major.
